

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

MR. AND MRS. MALCOLM McLAREN CELEBRATE THEIR WEDDING 34 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McLaren of North Jackson street on Sunday celebrated their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary with a family dinner. As it was "Mothers' Day," the table was decorated with carnations. Covers were laid for their son, James McLaren, his wife and two children, their daughter, Mrs. Fred Flack, and husband, who have recently come from Santa Barbara, another son, Robert Lee McLaren, and his fiancée, Miss Marie Goldberg, of Los Angeles. Following the dinner Mrs. McLaren was presented by her children with a string of pearls, a very lovely and appropriate gift under all the circumstances. The afternoon was devoted to music and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaren are rejoicing over the fact that their daughter has returned to Glendale to stay. Mr. Flack has purchased the interest of Vernon McGowan in the Russell Furniture Company on San Fernando Road and will be connected with it as a working partner from this time on. Mr. McGowan, who is a nephew of Mrs. McLaren, has not decided what line of business he will go into.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS

Mrs. Susie Peck and Mrs. Winona Crawford, who were delegates from the recently organized Mary Jane Gillette Tent of the Daughters of Veterans, this city, report a royal good time at the Convention in Santa Barbara last week from which they returned Saturday. They state that Fannie Collins of the Helen Jean Christie Tent of Los Angeles was elected Department President of the Daughters of Veterans. Mrs. Crawford of Glendale was made Third Color Bearer. She was also elected an alternate delegate to the National Convention which is to meet next September at Atlantic City.

LUNCHEON AND SHOWER

Mrs. Byron O. Loomis of North Pacific avenue was the honoree of a dainty luncheon and shower given by her mother-in-law, Mrs. O. C. Loomis, of 441 Palm Drive, Saturday afternoon. A dainty color scheme was carried out by using an abundance of pink and white roses.

The guests were Mrs. J. Kull, Mrs. Edward Kull, Mrs. Laura L. Sampson of Hermosa, Miss Nettie Dewey, Mrs. Oscar Tecoy, Mrs. George Tyrrell, Mrs. George Mathews, Mrs. Webber, Mrs. Bradbury, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Iva Hare, Mrs. Shugrue, Mrs. J. Ward, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. James Garrett of Venice, Mrs. Earl Turner, Mrs. Oliver E. Wright, Mrs. G. B. Wright, Miss Ruth Wright, Mrs. Charles Delong, Mrs. L. R. Lowman, Miss Ida Hock, the honoree and the hostess.

SILVER WEDDING

MR. AND MRS. ROWE AND MR. AND MRS. LATTER HAVE JOINT CELEBRATION

Saturday evening a double wedding anniversary was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rowe, of 216 South Orange street. Twenty-five years ago May 9th, Mr. and Mrs. Rowe were made one, and a few days later the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Latter occurred. The two families therefore united to observe the anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Latter coming south from Oakland by auto the middle of the week. About thirty friends, most of them members of the Glendale Baptist Church, were present to congratulate the two couples who received some handsome silver remembrances in spite of the fact that the invitations read "No presents." Other than a few games there was no program, just an informal social evening and refreshments of ice cream and home-made cake were served at the close. Mrs. Latter planned the beautiful scheme of decoration in honor of the happy event, silver bells being much in evidence and "Dusty Miller" was employed to carry out the silver tones in contrast with the pink roses used in the floral decoration. Mr. and Mrs. Latter expect to return to Oakland the early part of the coming week.

WEATHER FORECAST: Fair tonight and Tuesday. Somewhat warmer Tuesday.

G. A. R. MEETING

MEMBER OF POST AND CORPS RETURN FROM DEPARTMENT CONVENTION

Members of N. P. Banks Post and Women's Relief Corps who have been attending the convention of the Department of California and Nevada at Santa Barbara, returned Saturday and report a largely attended series of very profitable meetings. Present from the Glendale post were Commander Jones, and Comrades Gillette, Norton, Scudder, Clark, Barrett, Sanford, Sherman, and Taylor. The Relief Corps was represented by its president, Mrs. Mary Milligan and Mesdames Flora Pixley, Priscilla Houdyshel, Julian Hayes, Quintina Hammond, Margaret Hibbert, Susie Ogier, Elizabeth Spafford, Anna Burns, May Sanford, Susie Peck, Delia Hapgood, Abbie Haskell, Winona Crawford, and Nina Richards. Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Peck were also the delegates of the newly organized Daughters of Veterans.

Stockton was selected as the meeting place of the next convention and Comrade Kellogg of Sacramento was elected Department Commander.

Mrs. Hayes, who is the official reporter for the corps states that a number of fine addresses were made, one of special interest being by Mrs. Isabel Cross on child welfare work (Continued on Page 4)

GLENDALE FOLK ENJOY PICNIC IN CANYON

J. W. Smith and wife, Edward Smith, wife and two daughters, G. S. Learned and wife, A. D. McCoy and wife, Frank Runyon and wife and E. W. Lyon and wife, all former residents of Peoria and Knox counties or near vicinity, in Illinois, drove over to Monrovia Saturday morning and joined a party of 19 other Illinoisans in a picnic held in Monrovia Canyon as a kind of a farewell to F. S. Reed and wife, old neighbors, who were returning to the Illinois home after a few months spent in California, most of the time at Monrovia. A feature of the day was the picnic dinner under the trees. One of the members of the party celebrated his 80th birthday on that date and a huge birthday cake was provided for him and occupied the place of honor in the midst of the array of good things.

TWO BIRTHDAYS

DANCING PARTY CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY OF KENNETH JACKSON AND AUNT

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson on East Chestnut a delightful party was enjoyed Saturday evening by a group of young people and a few elders in celebration of two birthdays, the seventeenth anniversary of the birth of Kenneth Jackson, son of the house, and the birthday of his aunt, Mrs. E. H. Woodruff, which occurred within the past week. Mrs. Woodruff has been a guest in the Jackson home for several weeks and left Sunday with her friend Mrs. Brandis, for her home in East Orange, New Jersey. The function was therefore a farewell for the two ladies who have made many pleasant acquaintances while here.

The Jackson home was beautifully decorated in the high school colors, and at the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served. It was primarily a dancing party but a most amusing diversion was provided when a minstrel show which Captain Jackson has been coaching and which is to be put on in the near future as a benefit entertainment, was given a tryout by the captain and nine members of the circle of which the captain is interlocutor, accompanist, director and song writer. So great a success was the rehearsal the minstrels are more than ever encouraged to continue their work.

The guests were: Misses Virginia Huntley, Evelyn Gregg, Louise Holtenbeck, Martha Meyers, Bettie Warren, Esther Ralston, Helen Ford, Minola Budd, Aileen Sullivan, Ruth Wilson, Dorothy Hunt, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Brandis, Robert White, Floyd Carmack, Paul Hutchinson, Clarence Ralston, Brigham Bennett, Henry Ford, Sam Thompson, Dean Culbertson and Jessie Conlon of La Crescenta, Captain and Mrs. Harvey, Miss Edna Coddington and mother of Los Angeles, Col. and Mrs. J. D. Fraser of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan of Glendale, Bob and Al Sullivan, Arthur McKenzie, and of course the host and hostess; their son Kenneth and young daughter.

PRESIDENT CARRANZA A REFUGEE

SAID TO HAVE FLED TO MOUNTAINS WHEN HIS TRAIN WAS CAPTURED AND REVOLUTIONISTS IN PURSUIT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NOGALES, Ariz., May 10.—Latest reports reaching here today from Mexico City indicate that President Carranza escaped to the mountains at the time of his special train was captured and is now a refugee with armies scouring the hills for him.

Mazatlan in Sinaloa, was occupied by revolutionary forces under General Angel Flores at four o'clock this morning, according to reports received here.

Governor Iturbide, who was reported in earlier dispatches to have escaped in a private yacht, is now said to have been captured and probably will be tried for the execution of Obregon sympathizers in Mazatlan and other crimes.

U. S. POLICY IN MEXICO

PRESIDENT WILSON EXPECTED TO CALL CABINET MEETING TO CONSIDER SITUATION

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The State Department was confronted today with the necessity of arranging a new Mexican policy following the overthrow and reported capture of Carranza and the seizure of Mexico City by revolutionists. It was considered likely that President Wilson would call a cabinet meeting this week to consider what course the United States shall take. This government at present will not accord recognition to any Mexican faction which may attempt to take charge of the federal government of Mexico, it is understood.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION CHAIRMAN

BELIEVED THAT SENATOR HENRY CABOT LODGE WHO LED TREATY RESERVATION FIGHT WILL BE CHOSEN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, May 10.—The selection of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge as temporary chairman of the National Republican Convention was predicted here today. It was believed the senator, who led the treaty reservation fight, will be chosen by the committee of arrangements without dispute. President Wilson's message to the Oregon democrats urging that the League of Nations be made a campaign issue, was believed to have solidified Lodge's support. It was learned the Republican National Committee will meet here May 31st to hear contesting delegations. Six women attended the National Committee meeting here today.

SOLDIERS' BONUS BILL

HOUSE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE DECIDES AGAINST TAX OF ONE PER CENT ON RETAIL SALES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee definitely decided to abandon the proposed tax of one per cent on all retail sales as a means of raising revenue for the soldier bonus. At the same time a tentative agreement was reached to make every effort to reduce the total benefits originally shown from $1,750,000,000 to an amount slightly in excess of $1,000,000,000.

LABOR STRIKES IN FRANCE

FAILURE OF SYMPATHETIC STRIKES BELIEVED BY THE GOVERNMENT TO BE END OF TROUBLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, May 10.—Efforts of the Confederation of Labor to win the railway strike through a sympathetic street railway, subway, and airplane workers' walk-out apparently failed today. Only a few of the men ordered out quit work. Government officials believe this last failure will cause the speedy end of all strikes.

TESTIMONY OF SECRETARY DANIELS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—"The American people will never forgive Admiral Sims for his personal attacks on the U. S. navy," Secretary Daniels declared in opening his testimony today before the Senate Naval Investigating Committee. Daniels said he regretted ever having recommended Sims for honors.

ORDERED TO MEXICAN WATERS

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The U. S. battleship Oklahoma today was ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels to proceed from New York to Key West for possible duty off Mexico.

TAMPICO, MEX., CAPTURED

HOUSTON, May 10.—The U. S. S. Sacramento has arrived off Tampico, a radiogram to an oil publication here today said. The message declared Tampico had been captured by revolutionists without fighting. The situation is reported quiet.

MASONS CELEBRATE

OBSERVE MOTHERS' DAY BY TRIP TO MASONIC ORPHAN-AGE AT COVINA

The method of commemorating Mothers' Day by a visit to the Children's Masonic Home at Covina, which originated with the Glendale Commandery, was this year extended to other Masonic orders and on Sunday at ten o'clock about eighty automobiles filled with members of the Commandery, their wives and families, the members and families of Blue Lodge and Royal Arch Chapter, left the Glendale Temple.

Quite elaborate arrangements had been made for the event and when all were assembled with the Masonic orphan children and staff of the home the gathering numbered about five hundred souls. With the Glendale delegation went fifty gallons of ice cream, about one hundred pounds of the finest chocolate candy, and the makings of several barrels of lemonade. Bountiful basket lunches were carried by the families each being prepared to entertain one or more orphans at the tables provided on the grounds by the management for their guests. The Glendale committee of arrangements feels much indebted to local merchants for their contributions to the good things which went to Covina to make a spread for the orphan guests.

In addition to the feast a program designed especially for the entertainment was put on which included numbers by W. W. Worley of the Glendale Commandery, readings by Francis Henry who also contributed a lot of liquid refreshment of the good sort that he manufactures, and songs by Dr. Joseph Marple. An unique contribution was made by one of the "Ladies in Gray,"—an organization composed of wealthy women who did a great deal of Red Cross work in the most unostentatious way during the war and who have since then been carrying on welfare work of one sort and another which they finance themselves and in which their names never figure. This nameless lady gave some charming recitations.

The orphan children responded with a nice program of songs and a pretty drill put on by sixteen boys in uniforms which had been presented to them by Jimmiston Grotto.

E. B. Spencer, the Superintendent in charge, gave an excellent talk on the purpose of the home and the work it is doing, emphasizing the fact that it is not a charity but is self-supporting in all respects. It has 137 acres and ample buildings for all needs, maintains a medical clinic and a dental clinic and the children there receive really better care than do children in the average home. They are all the sons or daughters of Masons and under no other conditions are children admitted. They attend the public schools of Covina so that they come in contact with other children and live a normal life, but are given special advantages in the way of musical training and in other lines in the home. They are never taken from the orphanage to be placed in homes until after they have been graduated from the High School. Every year the entire school is taken to Balboa for thirty days to a camp provided for them by a wealthy Mason, and on all holidays throughout the school year the children are taken for hikes or other outings.

Five hundred carnations, the emblem of Mothers' Day, were distributed among the company, and eight mothers of children in the home who were present to spend the day with their offspring were also guests of the Glendale Masons. So impressed was the management with the Glendale Commandery and its interest in the orphanage that it decided last year to reserve Mothers' Day for the special celebration by organizations of this city.

FUNERAL OF ELIZABETH I. WEAVER

The remains of Elizabeth I. Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Weaver of 145 North Kenwood St., who died at Seattle May 2d of pneumonia after a brief illness, reached Glendale this morning, 9:25 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at the Jewel City Parlors Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment will take place in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Clarence Smith of 466 Hawthorne street has sold his home to a Los Angeles business man who will take possession immediately. Mr. Smith and family will soon move into their beautiful new Colonial bungalow at 312 North Kenwood, which is nearly completed.

D. A. R. MEETING

RICHARD GRIDLEY CHAPTER ELECTS OFFICERS AND HEARS TALK ON EGYPT

Largely attended was the regular meeting of the Richard Gridley Chapter, D. A. R., held Thursday afternoon at the home of the regent, Mrs. J. H. Braly, on North Brand boulevard. The chief business of the session was the receipt of annual reports of officers and committee chairmen and the election of officers for the ensuing year, the entire slate being re-elected as follows:

Mrs. J. H. Braly, regent.
Mrs. C. W. Houston, vice-regent.
Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, secretary.
Mrs. S. C. Leppelman, treasurer.
Mrs. Butterfield, of Burbank, historian.
Mrs. T. W. Preston, chairman of hospitality.
Mrs. William Rathbun, chairman of philanthropy.
Mrs. Gertrude Follansbee, chaplain.
Miss Ida Myers, chairman of alien education.

Mr. Braly continued the talk on Egypt which Prof. Larkin begun at a previous meeting, the speaker basing his lecture on his own personal experiences in Egypt where he spent several weeks visiting the tombs and other monuments of a by-gone civilization. The talk was most interesting and followed with close attention.

Very beautiful flowers, roses, everlastings, and other floral treasures had been used in the decoration of the Braly home, a conspicuous object being a lovely basket of sweet peas sent to the hostess by a friend.

Refreshments of the usual delicious sort were served and members rejoiced when announcement was made of the arrival of a little daughter in the home of a chapter member, Mrs. Albert Pearce, the little one being immediately named as the grand-daughter of the chapter.

DETROITERS ENJOYING CALIFORNIA

F. W. Harrison and wife of Detroit, who have been spending several weeks as guests of Mr. Harrison's brother, A. J. Harrison, returned to Glendale Friday from San Diego where they have enjoyed a week's stay at the Coronado Hotel. Accompanied by A. J. Harrison and family they motored to Redlands Saturday, returning Sunday evening and brought back to Glendale with them their daughter, Miss Jane Harrison, who has been spending some time with friends in Redlands. The first of the week Miss Harrison will go to Santa Monica for a few days' visit with an old school friend. The Detroit visitors seem to be thoroughly enjoying Southern California and expect to remain for several weeks longer.

COME ON, LET'S GO

BIG CHAUTAUQUA OPENS TONIGHT WITH ORIENTAL PAGEANT

The big Chautauqua tent is being put up today and by evening everything will be ready for the opening exercises at 8:00 p. m. and the lecture-entertainment by Julius Caesar Nayphe and his assistants in an Oriental Pageant. Mr. Nayphe is a native of Athens, Greece; was reared in Palestine, and is a cultured and an unique entertainer. His gorgeous display of tapestries and Oriental costumes is worth the price of admission.

A day of grace has been given the local committee to dispose of the remaining season tickets to meet their contract. A saving of several dollars can be made, if one is expecting to attend many times, by purchasing the season tickets at $2.75. They can be had at the tent tonight at that price and of banks and at Bott's Book Store till tomorrow noon.

Twenty-five members of the Glendale Commandery attended the big reception given for the new Grand Commander of the State, Robert Wankowski, at the Long Beach Auditorium. It was given there because the burning of the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles left no other auditorium considered large enough. As it was, the building was not nearly adequate to the large crowd in attendance. The reception was followed by a grand ball.

TENNESSEANS LEAVING

MR. AND MRS. J. D. STEWART AND FAMILY RETURNING TO OLD HOME IN RIDGELEY

Mr. and Mrs. W. Alexander of 117 West Acacia were host and hostess Sunday at a big farewell dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stewart, Mayme, Clyde and Paul Stewart, who are leaving about the 20th to return to Ridgeley, Tenn. They came to Glendale in January and bought property on East Windsor Road. Of all the members of the Tennessee colony this is the only family which has been dissatisfied with residence here and in their case it has been due to the homesickness of Mrs. Stewart for her relatives in the East. Their friends here predict that after they get back to Tennessee California will look very good to them and eventually they will come to stay. Their property on East Windsor was purchased by W. W. Alexander who bought for investment.

Mrs. Alexander used Scotch broom and white roses in decoration of her living room, employing crimson carnations and ferns in the dining room. Other guests for whom covers were laid besides the members of the Stewart family, were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alexander, Doris, G. E. and Lester Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Charles La Duke, Mrs. W. L. Alexander and Juanita Alexander. In the social afternoon which followed the bountiful, good, old-fashioned Tennessee dinner, other guests came in to greet the Stewarts, and wish them a safe and pleasant return to Tennessee.

COLORADO P.-T. A.

A well-attended and profitable meeting of the Colorado P.-T. A. was held Thursday afternoon at the schoolhouse at which brief talks were made by Superintendent White, Miss Clara Midcalf and Mrs. Dye, advance agent of the Chautauqua.

A feature of special interest was the presentation of pennants won by boys of the school at the Inter-City track meet, and the honor was emphasized by the serving to the boys of chocolate and cake by the chairman of hospitality, Mrs. Perry. Tea and wafers were served to members of the association following the election of officers which resulted as follows:

Mrs. Volker, president.
Mrs. Dotson, vice-president.
Mrs. Cronkrite, secretary.
Mrs. B. L. Cline, treasurer.

HAPPY FAMILY CLUB

Mrs. Anna K. Barr and Mrs. O. F. Calkins on Wednesday, May 5th, entertained the Happy Family Club of the Moneta Chapter of the L. A. Eastern Star with a picnic at the Calkins home on West Windsor Road. Others present besides members of the Club were Mrs. Sallie Braden, Worthy Matron of the Glen Eyrie Chapter of Glendale, Mrs. J. M. Calkins of Big Rapids Chapter, Big Rapids, Mich., Mrs. Bartholomew of South Gate, Chapter, and Miss Coral Griffith of Valley View Road. A picnic lunch for thirty-five was spread under the apricot trees and guests were entertained with games. The prizes awarded were the Sunkist Fruits of Southern California. In bidding their hostess adieu all declared they had enjoyed a wonderfully good time and were enthusiastic about beautiful Glendale. Mrs. Calkins of Big Rapids is the guest of Mrs. F. O. Calkins.

Personals

Miss Grace Utter of Covina spent Sunday with Glendale friends.

H. B. Woodil is having a small addition built to his handsome residence on Opechee Way in Selvas de Verdugo.

Fred Biren has taken out a permit for building a new 12x16 garage and also a 10x22 addition to his dwelling house, at 123 E. Palmer Ave.

Fred F. Peterson of San Fernando has taken out a permit for a 6-room residence and a garage at 366 Myrtle, to cost $3500.

Walter Nicholson and wife of Lancaster, came down Sunday to spend a few days with her parents, I. C.
Wasson and wife, of 623 East Acacia avenue.

Mrs. Sarah E. Waterman, accompanied by her grandson, Collins Kinney, both of Los Angeles, spent Sunday with her cousin, A. F. Webster, and family, of 205 East Acacia avenue.

Mrs. W. E. Empey of 444 Milford reported to the police last night that her son's new bicycle was stolen from in front of the Palace Grand Theater some time during the evening.

Mrs. W. C. Bradley of 523 Oak street says that passing children are in the habit of stealing loquats from the trees in her front yard and knocking the green fruit from trees
on a lot she owns west of her residence.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wright of 1000
South Glendale avenue had the pleasure Saturday morning of welcoming a grand-daughter born to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Huff, of Vallejo, who are guests in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Widmark are rejoicing over the birth of a son born at their home on East Lomita Thursday night. He has been named Glen Arthur Widmark. Mrs. Widmark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Miles Morehouse who live near her on Lomita.

C. E. Mendenhall and wife, who came out to Los Angeles from Vermont, Ill., a few weeks ago, were guests yesterday of A. F. Webster and wife, 205 East Acacia avenue, and of Mrs. Caroline Black and daughter of 1129 S. Brand boulevard, old neighbors back in Illinois.
The Mendenhalls are hoping to rent a place in Glendale and expect to buy eventually, as they prefer this city to any place they have seen.

Mrs. Edna Irene Sawyer of 519
Oak St., who recently bought the Heebing property just across the street at 522, relates a recent instance of trespassing that would be amusing if not so annoying. The occupants of No. 522 were away from home when it occurred. An auto with quite a party as occupants was backed in on the front lawn and left standing there while the people got out, trampled over the grounds and picked many of the flowers. Mrs.
Sawyer expects to add many improvements to the place some time
this summer.

J. P. Lampert, chief of police, who applied for and was granted a two weeks' vacation commencing June 1st and a four months' leave of absence immediately following that,
intends starting early next month,
accompanied by his wife, on a long trip of recreation, sight-seeing and visiting. They will stop at Sacramento, Napa and Redding in California, then go to the Yakima Valley and Spokane, Wash. They will afterward visit points in Idaho, Nebraska, Illinois, Oklahoma and Texas. Mr. Lampert recently sold his home in Glendale and his wife and daughter have since then been occupying residence property owned in Burbank, while he has been staying in Glendale.

Floyd Mercer and wife are spending this week with relatives in Bakersfield.

Mrs. G. D. Roach and Mrs. Lap-ham attended a delightful luncheon
in Los Angeles given for the Bridge Club to which they belong, a few days ago.

Wm. Fullerton has taken out a permit to erect a brick and stone building 26x34 feet at 714 South
Brand, just north of the Brandale apartments. It will be occupied by a grocery store. The estimated cost of the improvement is $2000.

A Mrs. Dunn of 704 Moreland avenue, Burbank, was driving south on Kenwood yesterday afternoon in a sedan when she lost control of the machine and turned it into the curb at the Broadway crossing, striking a lamp post and breaking four of the big white shades. Her car was considerably damaged, also.

E. W. Hufford of 445 Dryden reported to the police that as he was driving his Ford north on Brand boulevard near Park early yesterday morning he struck one of MacMul-lin's milk wagons which was going south, tearing off a front wheel. He said his Ford was damaged also. The windshield was broken, and the top,
a fender and a lamp damaged.

Miss Virginia and Milton Berry entertained at their home, 101 North Central avenue, yesterday afternoon young people from Los Angeles and Pasadena. The time was pleasantly spent in conversation and jokes.
At 6:30 a delightful supper was served. The guests were Larry and Miss Sarah Devlin of Los Angeles and Miss Leona Lydon of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Peterson of 1222 South Maryland avenue
have just welcomed to their home, William Edward Peterson, Jr., their first son, who weighs nine pounds and is a lusty fellow. He has a little sister about five years old. There is no prejudice against children on South Maryland and the neighbors are all rejoicing over the new arrival.

The Madrigal Club of Glendale
has been asked to sing at sessions of the State Convention of the Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations to be held in Los Angeles May 18th to 21st, and visiting members from points outside of Los Angeles are to be entertained with an auto ride around Glendale
by the Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations of this city.

Little Ethel Louise Kausen enjoyed a delightful celebration of her sixth birthday Thursday at her home, 360 Salem street, Glendale. Six little friends were entertained—
Marcelle Kirkwood, Doris Lund, Jane
Thimm, Josephine Smith, Patricia Carlyle. A pink color scheme was carried out in the decorations, the general setting and party refreshments and a happy afternoon was enjoyed by the guests and by the little celebrant who received many pretty remembrances.

Henry Yates and wife of Los Angeles, who lately came from Houston, Texas, where Mr. Yates was in the postal service, were guests of Glendale friends yesterday and were so charmed by their brief visit that they hope to become residents. Mrs.
Yates was Miss Helen Glover and formerly lived in Fullerton, where her father was pastor of the Christian Church. Her parents, who have lived in Plano, Texas, for several years, are planning on returning to California to live.

Philos Cook and wife of Pasadena were Glendale visitors Saturday and called at the office of the Evening News. Mr. Cook had not been in Glendale since 1906 and marveled greatly at the wonderful change for the better of the little city he remembered but dimly. He is an old newspaper man and was then with the "California Fruit Grower," a paper since discontinued. He later worked on one of the Pasadena dailies.

CHAPTER A. H.

It was expected that the regular meeting of Chapter A. H. of the P.
E. O. which took place Thursday,
May 6th, would be held at the home of Mrs. Noble Ripley, but Mrs. D. H.
Smith of 302 North Maryland, who is a member of Chapter L, but who has several times been the guest of A. H., asked the privilege of entertaining the members. Mrs. Ripley being associated with her as hostess.
The usual delicious luncheon was enjoyed at noon, the table being centered with a variety of very lovely roses. In the program which followed, Mrs. Charles Parker gave a sketch of the life and work of the French artist, Jean Francois Millet, describing his more celebrated pictures especially The Gleaners and

NUTTY HIKE

ENDEAVORERS OF GLENDALE
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
HAVE HAPPY OUTING

The Young Peoples' Christian Endeavor Society of the Glendale Presbyterian Church, and their friends, enjoyed a "Natty Hike" Friday evening. In response to invitations sent out last week in the form of peanuts with the nuts removed and neatly folded invitations inserted in their places, about thirty met at the church promptly at eight o'clock and journeyed out Broadway to Eagle Rock Road. There they left the smooth path for a rather rough and rugged one along the mountain side and after some strenuous climbing, slipping and sliding, the happy party finally arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Van Ornum, 601 West Hill street, Eagle Rock, where a large bonfire had been started in anticipation of the arrival of the guests. Seated around the fire the jolly young people were served with baskets of peanuts. Then started the games which included a list of ten packages neatly encased in which were small quantities of various household necessities, such as sugar, salt, tea, etc., etc. Each guest was requested to guess what the package contained. Three of the party had a correct list at the close of the time allowed for the game and "cuts" were drawn to determine which of the three was entitled to the prize. It was finally captured by Miss Marjorie Smith, and after much unwinding and unwrapping of a fair-sized package, a very attractive and "natty" doll was presented to the winner. Other games followed and about eleven o'clock the fire was in splendid condition for roasting the wienies, which, when served with the excellent rolls and butter, amply satisfied the appetites of the hungry and happy crowd. Those enjoying the hike were the Misses Elsie Cox, Vera Grant, Vera Sinclair, Lulu Woolridge, Julia Voorhies, Nellie Carmichael, Margaret Pardon, Alma Pardon, Marie Maier, Marjorie Smith, Ethel Preston, Maurine Baker and Nellie Warner, and the Messrs. James Cooper, Fred Hoffman, Garner Cox, Ward Stearns, Frank Mangold, Will Marple, Sabin Buck and Joseph Maier. The crowd was properly chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. C. Riggs and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Straight, and was met at Mr. Van Ornum's home by Mr. and Mrs. Van Ornum and Mrs. James Cooper, who were the hosts and hostesses of the evening. At a late hour the young people enjoyed a song and prayer before leaving on the hike homeward, which, however, was not taken over the mountain side, but by the hard and beaten path, Eagle Rock Road and Broadway.

AVOCADO RANCH

CLAUDE HARNES WILL SET
NEWLY PURCHASED 7
ACRES TO THIS FRUIT

Mrs. M. L. Tight reports the sale of over $30,000 worth of Glendale property in April. Among her sales was the Leavitt seven acres on N. Glendale Ave. to Claude B. Harnes for Mrs. Ada Leavitt. Mrs. Harnes and family had been living for several years on an alfalfa ranch near Burbank, but recently sold it. He investigated property in various towns around Los Angeles and finally came to the conclusion that Glendale was the ideal location for him. He lived in South America for a number of years and there became interested in avocado culture. Glendale he considers an ideal location for this kind of fruit, if it can thus be called, as the soil is well adapted for it. Mr. Harnes expects to set the most of his seven acres in avocado trees, as he considers there is a great future for this product as people get better acquainted with its many excellent qualities. A proper distribution of different varieties will give fresh fruit every month in the year.

Mrs. Tight also sold the seven-room house and an acre of ground belonging to Mrs. Louise Harker, at 434 West Doran. A. K. Finley of Portland, Oregon, was the purchaser and he plans extensive improvements to make of it a desirable residence property.

Among other sales were 2 1/2 acres on East Windsor Road for Spencer Robinson to W. J. Clarkson and acreage on East Colorado for a non-resident.

particularly among foreigners, a work which she feels could and should be taken up by members of the relief corps of the country. A matter which came up for consideration was a proposed change of name of the organization known as "Sons of Veterans" which was also represented at the convention by delegates. The suggested change is to "Sons of Veterans of the Grand Army," which the corps members present and voting heartily approved. The convention was most cordially welcomed by Santa Barbara and all delegates were given coupons entitling them to free rides on the street cars during their stay, and they were provided with every facility for visiting all the points of interest including the Santa Barbara Mission. In the parade were some marching companies from posts and corps in Los Angeles and a few other places, but the majority rode. It was a long and impressive affair. One of the marching bands was composed of about 25 little boys in uniform, seemingly from 8 to 12 years of age, who played beautifully and attracted much attention. Boy scouts were in evidence at all times during their stay to direct the visitors or help with friendly services.

Saturday morning, officers of the Department W. R. C. were elected as follows:

President, Ella French of Los Angeles.

Sr. Vice President, Jessie Sliger, of Stockton.

Jr. Vice President, Catherine Sweet, of Los Angeles.

Treasurer, Jennie Lincoln of Long Beach.

Chaplain, Priscilla Houdyshel of Glendale.

The appointive officers had not been named when the Glendale ladies left. The business of the sessions was somewhat congested because of the primary elections on Tuesday when no sessions were held.

HAVE STRENUOUS PLEASURE RIDE

Hearing that a machine had turned over in North Verdugo Road yesterday morning officers went out to investigate and found that the scene of the accident was a short distance south of Montrose. Larnez and Mary Ramon, with their son, Angel, were by the roadside but the taxi had been righted and driven away by the owner. The Ramons, who live at 621 1/2 Castelar street, Los Angeles, said they had hired a taxi driver, name unknown, to take them for a drive, paying him $10. He proved to be intoxicated, they said, and finally by his erratic driving, turned the machine over, injuring himself and his passengers only slightly, however. They refused to accompany him any further but helped him to right the machine, when he drove away. They were taken back home by a Glendale taxi driver.

DEPARTURE OF THE WALSMAS

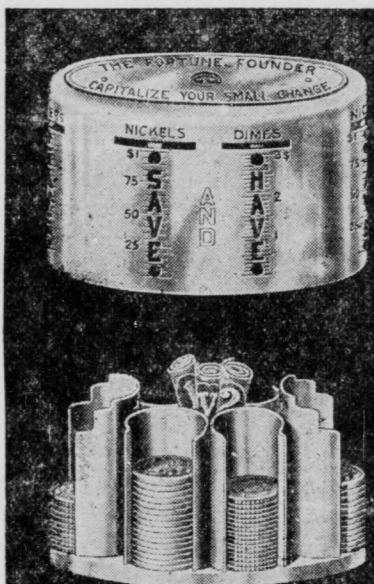

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walsma, who conducted the Broadway Bakery for a year or more, and who recently sold out to take a rest and visit relatives in this country and Holland, left Sunday to make the transcontinental journey by automobile to Paterson, N. J., where they will visit until they embark for Holland on the Finland July 24th. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Michel at 897 North Central avenue for a month before their departure and will correspond with their host and hostess while away. They left in the expectation of being gone nine months to a year, and plan to take their automobile overseas to tour Holland.

X. V. I. CLUB

Miss Harriet Nichols of 222 1/2 Hawthorne street, Monte Vista Apartments, on Saturday afternoon entertained members of the X. V. I. Club. The afternoon was devoted to needlework for some philanthropic cause in which the club is interested and dainty refreshments were served. The ladies present were: Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. L. Andrews, Mrs. Albert Cornwell, Misses Carrie and May Cornwell, Lillian and Birdie Shropshire, Mrs. F. Story of Burbank, and the hostess.

SAVE

AND HAVE

Hard Times May Come

This era of prosperity may not last always.

It is a wise man or woman who lays money by while it is plenty and then has something to fall back upon in case prosperity takes wings.

A savings account in this bank earning interest for you isn't a bad thing to have under any circumstances.
